Synopsis:

On 01-24-2015 at approximately 10:13 PM, Mendocino County Sheriff's Deputies were dispatched to Schlafer's Chevron, located in the 44000 block of Main Street in Mendocino, California to a reported burglary that had just occurred.

A witness reported observing an intoxicated white male who was about 6 feet tall weighing about 200 pounds, wearing a cabbie newsboy style hat, baggie shorts and a black coat, break a window of the business.

The suspect was observed entering the business through the broken window and stealing candy bars, chips and bottled soda.

Deputies responded to the business and began processing it for evidence and interviewing witnesses while other Deputies searched the township of Mendocino for the suspect.

Deputies located a subject matching the suspect description, staggering on the edge of the roadway in the 10400 block of Lansing Street in Mendocino.

The subject, Hunter Graham, was heavily intoxicated and had recent lacerations on his hands and legs. Deputies noticed glass shards on the back of his jacket and his shorts contained nineteen candy bars.

Graham was placed under arrest for 460(b) PC (2nd Degree Burglary) and was booked into the Mendocino County Jail where he was held in lieu of $15,000.00 bail.
