Synopsis:

On 03-05-2015 around 11:00 PM an adult male victim was sitting on a sidewalk in the 100 block of Ford Road in Ukiah, California.

The victim was suddenly attacked by Patrick Taylor who punched the victim in the head a few times and stole the victim's backpack by force. Taylor chased the victim shortly thereafter and made off with the victim's backpack and other personal property.

Mendocino County Sheriff's Deputies responded to the 100 block of Ford Road and searched the area for Taylor however he was not located that evening.

On 03-06-2015 at about 2:18 PM Mendocino County Animal Control Officer's witnessed a physical fight between Taylor and the victim in the 100 block of Brush Street in Ukiah, California.

Mendocino County Sheriff's Deputies and Ukiah Police Department Officers responded to the location and separated Taylor and the victim.

Taylor was subsequently arrested for strong armed robbery by Mendocino County Sheriff's Deputies and the victim's backpack was recovered.

Taylor was booked into the Mendocino County Jail where he was to be held in lieu of $150,000.00 bail.
