Synopsis:

On 08-28-2015 at approximately 12:49 PM, a Mendocino County Sheriff's Deputy observed a white Toyota Corolla with expired registration tabs traveling southbound on Highway 101 near Willits, California.

The Deputy conducted a traffic stop at MPM 56.13 and contacted the driver, Franklin Timothy Lunney.

During the stop the Deputy detected the odor of marijuana coming from inside the car.

A search of the car revealed two large duffle bags in the trunk. The duffle bags contained approximately thirty-one pounds of bud marijuana packaged in one-pound increments.

Lunney was arrested for transportation of marijuana and was subsequently booked into the Mendocino County Jail to be held in lieu of $50,000.00 bail.
