Synopsis:

On 09-19-2015 at approximately 11:16 PM, Deputies from the Mendocino County Sheriff's Office were dispatched to a citizen's report of breaking glass at June Marie's store in Covelo, California.

Despite being nearby at the time of the call, the Deputies arrived to find a large glass window near the front door shattered by a large rock and the suspect(s) already gone.

The Deputies reviewed surveillance video which showed a male suspect with a heavy build and very bushy shoulder-length hair enter through the window opening. Upon entry the suspect shattered a glass display case and fled quickly with the contents of the display case.

The stolen items were mostly inexpensive items of jewelry. The Deputies noticed the presence of blood on the floor and on the display case suggesting the suspect had cut himself on broken glass.

While one Deputy processed the crime scene, their partner began to canvass the neighborhood.

The following night Deputies were patrolling Covelo and noticed a person matching the description of the suspect.

Deputies contacted the person who was identified as Daric Pardo and determined he had been responsible for the burglary.

Pardo was arrested for burglary, vandalism and violation of probation. Four pieces of jewelry stolen from the display case were recovered from Pardo's clothing.

Pardo was transported to the Mendocino County Jail where he was to be held in lieu of $20,000 bail.
