Synopsis:

On 11-14-2015 the Mendocino County Sheriff's Office was dispatched to the Ukiah Station in regards to a domestic violence incident that occurred the previous evening in Redwood Valley, California.

Upon arrival, Deputies contacted Bonnie Akin who advised she had been involved in a domestic violence incident with her husband, Kurt Akin, at their residence on 11-13-2015.

Deputies learned a struggle over a cellular phone resulted in the pair having physically restrained and physically assaulted each other inside the residence. Deputies noticed extensive bruising on both of Bonnie's arms.

Kurt subsequently arrived at the Sheriff's Office at the request of Deputies and was interviewed. Deputies observed no obvious injuries on Kurt's body in relation to the reported incident.

Based upon the reported circumstances of this incident Kurt was arrested for felony domestic violence battery and was booked into the Mendocino County Jail to be held in lieu of $25,000.00 bail.

Bonnie was cited and released for misdemeanor domestic violence battery.
