Synopsis:

On 11-15-2015 at about 8:50 AM Mendocino County Sheriff's Deputies were dispatched to contact an adult female at a local hospital to investigate a reported domestic violence incident.

Upon arrival, Deputies learned a 38 year-old adult female was visiting with Todd Ramos at his residence earlier in the morning when an argument erupted between the pair.

The argument escalated and Ramos grabbed the adult female and threw her across the room causing her to fall to the floor of the residence where she sustained injuries to her shoulder, chest area and a knee.

Deputies observed a visible injury to one of her knee's consistent with a physical assault. During the contact Deputies learned the pair were engaged in a dating relationship.

Deputies subsequently contacted Ramos at his residence located in the 100 block of Campbell Drive in Redwood Valley, California.

Ramos was arrested for felony domestic violence battery. Ramos was determined to be on Mendocino County Court Probation for an unrelated incident and he was also arrested for violating the terms of his probation.
