Synopsis:

On 11-29-2015 at about 4:43 PM Mendocino County Sheriff's Deputies were dispatched to contact an adult female regarding a child abduction and violation of a restraining order incident at a residence located in the 10000 block of West Road in Redwood Valley, California.

Deputies contacted the adult female who reported that her husband, Joshua Wambolt, had taken their 2 year-old child from the residence while stating he was leaving the state.

Deputies learned Wambolt had a domestic violence restraining order issued against him from the state of Colorado with the adult female and their 2 year-older daughter as being protected persons.

A statewide Be-On-The-Look-Out (BOLO) broadcast was issued for the apprehension of Wambolt for violation of the restraining order (273.6 PC) and for child abduction (278 PC).

On 11-29-2015 at about 6:30 PM Mendocino County Deputies located Wambolt and the 2 year-old child in a vehicle parked at the Walmart parking lot in Ukiah, California.

Wambolt was arrested on the listed charges and the child was safely returned to her mother.

Wambolt was booked into the Mendocino County Jail where he was to be held in lieu of $35,000.00 bail.
