Synopsis:

On 12-30-2015 at approximately 6:30 AM Deputies from the Mendocino County Sheriff's Office were dispatched to a possible domestic violence incident at a business located in the 44000 block of North Highway 101 in Laytonville, California.

Upon arrival Deputies located an adult female, hiding in the restroom of the business, who stated that she had been physically assaulted by her boyfriend.

The adult female was provided medical aid at the scene and subsequently transported by Laytonville Ambulance to a local hospital where she received treatment for her injuries.

Deputies searched the area surrounding the business subsequently locating the adult female's boyfriend, who was identified as being Trevor Traphagen.

The adult female was determined to have sustained a broken nose and a right eye orbital fracture during the physical assault. The adult female was later released from the hospital after receiving medical attention for her injuries.

Following the investigation of the incident, Traphagen was placed under arrest for infliction of corporal injury on a dating partner.

Traphagen was booked into the Mendocino County Jail where he was to be held in lieu of $25,000.00 bail.
